

Sharing objects into groups

- Children are encouraged to do this practically.
- Children to use pictures or shapes or anything you can find in your home to share quantities.
- Children are encouraged to draw pictures and represent their mathematical thinking through various representations.

Can you share the apples equally between 3 people?

Let's share the apples equally.

Let's share the apples equally.

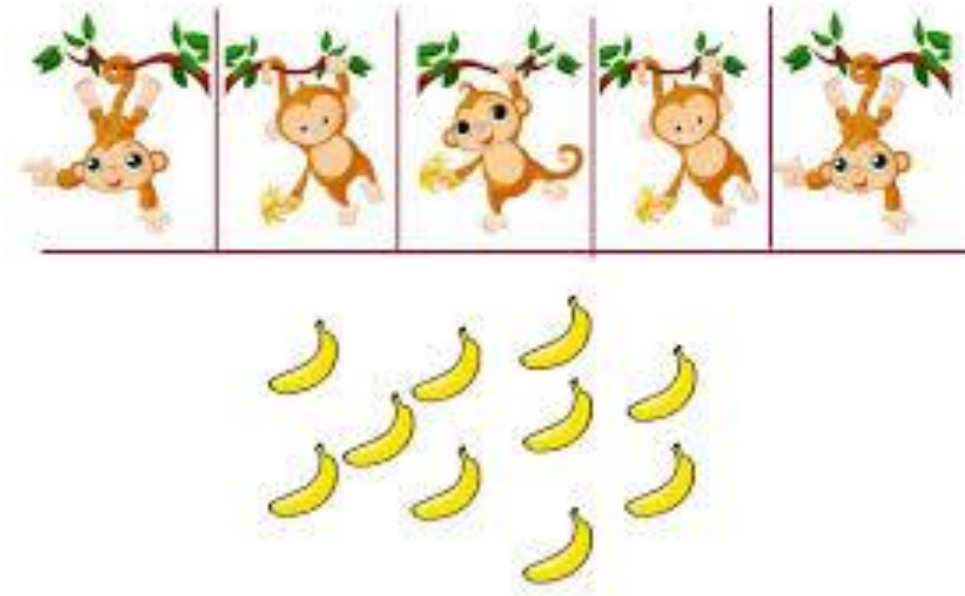

Let's share the apples equally.

matholia

How many apples does each person have?

Can you share the bananas fairly between the 5 monkeys.

How many do they have each?