Yes or No questions:

Dear Adults, We play this game in class with groups of children, so please join in with your child. It will make it more interesting and you can show your child how to sound out the words they find difficult to read. There are lots of questions to choose from, so we suggest that you read one set at a time. When you have read all the questions provided, why not write your own 'Yes' / 'No' questions. Have fun!

- * Take two pieces of paper, it could be the back of an old envelope and write the word 'Yes' on one and 'No' on the other.
- * Ask your child to cut out each sentence and carefully shuffle them.
- * Pick up one sentence at a time and encourage your child to look for those pesky digraphs and trigraphs. It helps if they add their sound buttons underneath each word.
- * Ask your child to have a go at reading the question by themselves first, but be ready to help them if they get stuck
- * They will need to decide whether the answer to the question is 'Yes' or 'No'. We usually talk about the question to help them.
- * Place the sentence next to the 'Yes' or 'No' word and repeat until all the sentences have been read.
