

Year 2

Login in to Charanga and go to your YUMU assignments.

Click on "Listen and Appraise" and listen to the song "Jai Ho" (meaning "may victory be yours"). You can click on the "questions" button and answer some of the questions after you have listened to the song.

This song was written for a film called "Slumdog Millionaire" and is a musical style called Bhangra. Bhangra is a type of popular music combining Punjabi and Indian traditional music with Western pop music. It developed in Britain in the 1980s from people that had moved from Pakistan and India. Today Bhangra exists in different styles across the world, it fuses its sounds with hip-hop and R&B. Click on the "about the song" button if you want to find out more about this song. You can also watch a video performance of the song below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OPRzlpvHLPE>

Now click on the "Warm-up Games". Go to Challenge 4. Only clap back when you are asked to.

Next, click on "Flexible Games Track - In the Groove: Bhangra" - Silver Challenge. You can choose "Move to the pulse" or "Find the Pulse" to dance along to.

Lastly, click on "In the Groove - Bhangra: Learn to sing the song" and keep singing along to the song. Find different ways of moving to the pulse of the music. Maybe look at the dance moves in the video and use some of these actions for this song.

Extension

Click on the "Compose with the song-In the groove: Bhangra" and create a composition using the notes on the side. Use three notes only to start off with and then playback. In the settings button on the left you can adjust the playback speed and play along with a tuned instrument if you have access to one. Try adding different notes and see what you can create!