

LO: Children build up vocabulary that reflects the breadth of their experience and develop their own explanations by connecting ideas

Key Questions: What do you know about snails? How do you know that? What would you like to find out next?