Can you count correctly and write the number you have counted?	Extra Activity Ideas: Maths Challenge:
Reading and Writing Read through your tricky words and sounds. Choose your own books to read from the Oxford Owl website – can you try 2 or 3 this week? https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/home/find-a-book/library-page/	Reading and Writing Read through your tricky words and sounds. Perhaps choose 3 a day to focus on. Why not make flash cards and put them going up your stairs or on the doors in your home? Can you write them?	Reading and Writing Read through your tricky words and sounds Choose your own books to read from the Oxford Owl website – can you try 2 or 3 this week? https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/home/find-a-book/library-page/.	Reading and Writing Ask your adult to read out some tricky words for and try writing them on your own. Can you make a sentence with some of the words – remember capital letters and full stops. Is yours a silly sentence?	Can you plant something in a pot or in your garden like Oliver? Make a diary of how it grows.
Writing Task: Make your own story book. It could be about dragons and castles – do you know any stories like this? It could be like the story Oliver's Vegetables, or perhaps it could be like a traditional tale such as Little Red Riding hood or Goldilocks. You could add pictures to make your story come to life. Can you include some of your tricky words? We would love to see pictures of the books you create.
