

Year 1 and Year 2

For the last week of the summer term you will be finishing the BBC Schools Music Programme and watching and singing along to the last part of our exciting traditional story of "Little Red Riding Hood".

There are some story questions which you will need to answer after watching each episode of the story. If you click on any individual question, the answer will be revealed!

Go to the video screen, click on the arrow on the right and scroll to "Episode 7 of the story". Now watch the story and answer the story questions on the page. Once you have done that, click on the arrow on the left and scroll back and listen to Tutorial 7. Once you have done that, scroll forward through the other videos, listening and joining in on Song 7: 'The big bad wolf has gone' (vocal) and then Song 7: 'The big bad wolf has gone' (backing).

Extension

Look at the 'Listening Music' video found below on the page. Click on the video which will play Vivace from "Four Cornish Dances" by the English born composer Malcolm Arnold. Listen to this very lively music which is played by brass instruments. What sort of dance would go with this piece of music, fast or slow? This brings our story to an end. I hope you have enjoyed this music adventure. Have a lovely summer!
