1. Reading Eggs – 15 mins 2. In school your friends will be learning the 'ea' grapheme as in 'eat'. Play Education City's 'A treat by the sea' to learn about this grapheme. I will check Education City this evening to see how you did. 3. When reading books at home, how many words that have the 'ea' grapheme can you find? Read the following 'ea' words that I found in my reading book … tea, sea, cream, beach, feast, leaf, meat, least, read, treat.	Creative writing 1. Look at today's picture on www.pobble365.com Talk about it with your adult.. What can you see? Why do you think this is happening? 2. Now I would like you to write 4 sentences about this picture. 3. Remember to include… •Finger spaces •Sound your words out when spelling them •Begin each sentence with a capital letter •End each sentence with a full stop. 4. When it is done – ask you adult to take a photo of your writing and send it to me at virtualclassteacher@st-edmunds.richmond.sch.uk so that I can mark it.	To recognise that animals are either carnivores, herbivores or omnivores 1.Please log on to Education City and watch the Learnscreen entitled 'A Bite to Eat'. 2.Next, log onto myUSO using your personal detail that have been stuck into your homework diary. Click on Busy things – Year 1 – Science – Animals – Herbivores, Omnivores, Carnivores. 3.Complete this activity. Keep trying it until you get all of the animals correct. 4.Please ask an adult to take a screen shot of your work, paste it onto a word document and email it to me at virtualclassteacher@st-edmunds.richmond.sch.uk so that I can mark it.	In school today, you would be having your music lesson so that is exactly what you will do at home this afternoon! •Click onto BBC's website. https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zk86qfr/articles/zqtm8hv •Watch the Rhythm, Vocal and Body Sounds clip. Twice •Now, do the activities below it.
