Parent's Sample Comments:

We cannot fault the Catholic education or life of the school. It's excellent.

The religious education our children receive at St Edmund's is outstanding. They are helped to make right choices in a loving and nurturing way.

I am very pleased with how the school teach and provide Catholic faith.

Please keep your amazing working going.

My three children have attended this school and they have grown in their faith and love within and out of school. An excellent school!

I see huge progress in my son's knowledge about RE.

Very friendly and amazing school!

I am very happy with the excellent Catholic education my child receives.

My children have high quality education with the nurturing support of the Parish.

We love how St Edmund's places Christ at the centre of our child's education.

St Edmund's School is amazing in all aspects. Teachers are brilliant in what they do. My children have never been happier.

Areas for development:

Explore further ways of including RE homework throughout the academic in year in all year groups.

Explore further ways of sharing charitable works completed by the children and how the school works with the parish.

Many thanks for taking the time to fill out these questionnaires. St Edmund's is very proud of its community and it is always nice to be able to celebrate this.

Kind regards,

Mr Nash (RE Subject Lead)
